Abstract (en)

[origin: ES473239A1] A banding machine for banding bundles of bank notes, by means of ribbons of material, which are drawn off two supply rollers by the material to be packed, which has been inserted into the machine, and pass above and beneath the material to be packed to a sealing and cutting device, which forms a closing sealing seam for the material to be packed. Bundles of different size can be handled because moveable stops move the bundle into a precise operating position.
