Abstract (en)
[origin: ES8200580A1] A strand guide for an arcuate continuous casting plant has at least one arcuate, horizontally displaceable supporting and guiding structure. In order to be able to remove and install the supporting and guiding structure in a simple manner, on ensuring a good accessibility and not restricting the space on the casting platform, the supporting and guiding structure is mounted on at least one intermediate trestle. The intermediate trestle is adjustable in the arc plane and is supported on at least one supporting trestle which is adjustable transversely to the arc plane.
