Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0032122A2] A merchandise dispensing device of the gravity feed type in which a track (55, 56) having a pair of rails to receive the neck-flanges of suitable bottles is mounted in a rack. The rails include upturned end portions (83, 90) providing a braking section in which gravity feed is arrested. The tracks include two different sized sets of rails (80,81 : 106,99) which can be selectively positioned to receive bottles having different neck flanges.
