Abstract (en)

[origin: WO8101989A1] The vehicles with two wheels located on the same line, provided with a side-car, are difficult to ride. In order to enhance the driving safety of such a vehicle and particularly to allow an inclination of the vehicle (10) with respect to the side-car (78), said side-car is connected to the vehicle (10) so as to pivot about an axis (88) essentially parallel to the forward motion of the vehicle (10).
