Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0081288A1] The backing (10) of a pile weather strip is scored (26) from the underside (12) thereof at a location between the pile strip (15) and one side edge (14) of the backing (10) to permit the part of the backing (10) between the score line (26) and the aforesaid side (14) to hinge so that the weather strip can be inserted into a T-slot (18) through the opening (22) thereof instead of being slid longitudinally into the T-slot (18) through an open end thereof.
