Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0086662A1] Storage boxes particularly useful for document storage are described. They are pallet boxes, i.e. consist of a box on a pallet base (1). The box has a plurality of storage sections, at least one of which is removable as a unit to gain access to the removable unit and to the other sections. In a preferred form the removable unit is a trolley (9). The end wall of the trolley may constitute part of the box walls (5) or part of one of the box walls (6) may hinge down to provide a trolley support.
