Abstract (en)
[origin: ES272213U] A toy-figure or doll is provided which is especially configured and dimensioned for use in conjunction with a modular, plug-in-type building-block system with H-shaped block modules according to U.S. Pat. No. 3,838,535 (German Pat. No. 2,161,913). This toy-figure comprises movable arms, hands, legs and head. All measurements of the toy-figure and its component parts are sensibly adapted to the modular system which is based on a basic length unit inasmuch as, for example, the length, breadth and depth of the figure, shoulder height, distance between the hands, grip-opening of the hands etc. all amount to whole-number multiples or fractions of the basic length unit a.
