Abstract (en)

[origin: US4534238A] The unit comprises a collar defining a bearing surface (13) for the lever, a fixing device such as a rivet (24) which also constitutes the journal on which the lever (25) is mounted, and an elastically yieldable washer (23). The collar defines also a cavity (16) for a member constituting an abutment for a cable sheath and may be provided with a rapid fixing device.
