Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0127863A2] The bag is suitable, in particular, for ladies and it consists of a customary, at least partially flexible bag cover and can be closed at its top side. In its core, the bag cover contains a briefcase (1), thus giving the bag a dual function in that it is suitable both for receiving the customary personal items and, separately from these, for transporting files and the like. <IMAGE>
