Abstract (en)

[origin: WO8403573A1] The support installation for a keyboard (7) connected to a screen apparatus (1) is provided with devices (9) to guide the keyboard (7) when the latter is pushed into the installation (2) or pulled outside the latter. In order to introduce in the installation (2) keyboards (7) of various sizes, particularly larger than the screen unit (1), three sides of the space receiving the keyboard are opened in the horizontal direction.
