Abstract (en)

[origin: WO8404313A1] Polyimide polymers which are thermally stable thermoplastic materials comprising the polycondensation reaction product of diether-containing aromatic dianhydrides and diether-containing aromatic diamines.

Abstract (fr)

Des polymères polyimides obtenus sont des matériaux thermoplastiques caractérisés par une stabilité thermique et comprennent le produit de réaction de polycondensation de dianhydrides aromatiques contenant un diéther et des diamines aromatiques contenant un diéther.
