Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0153185A2] A label (2) for a container comprising two superposed webs (4, 6) of sheet material which are adhered together at two regions (20, 21) spaced from each other, there being between those regions (20, 21) two opposed inner web surfaces (22, 24), at least one of which carries printed information, at one of the said regions (21) the two webs (4, 6) being releasably adhered together so that the two webs (4, 6) can be separated thereby to reveal the information by pulling the webs (4, 6) apart in that region (21). There is also provided a method and apparatus for making such labels in a continuous process.
