Abstract (en)

The drawer-box for cash registers, computing machines and the like includes a conventional drawer (3) provided with compartments for receiving bank-notes of different sizes (7) as well as small money pieces and a small drawer (5) referred to as safety drawer of the moneybox type, provided with a timed opening lock (8) and with a slot (6) for introducing the cash surplus therein. The drawer-box is used instead of the conventional drawer-box or can be connected to a conventional drawer-box as an accessory. The timed opening lock (8) can be of the fixed or controllable time type.
