Abstract (en)
[origin: WO8503419A1] Office table with a main table plate (1) and an annex articulated table (13). The main table plate has dimensions and a device provided to receive a microcomputer central unit (7) with disk units, as well as a screen (9) arranged at eye level on the central unit. The annex table (13) articulated to the main table plate (1) has a lockable frame enabling to turn it freely with the hand and a printer table plate (13) with a lowering and elevation device (45) of which the dimensions are sufficient to receive a microcomputer printer (15). A storage plate (19) may be hingedly arranged on the other side of the main table plate (1), the printer table plate (13) and the storage plate (19) being freely turnable so as to be taken from a spread-out work position to a rest position under the main table plate (1).
