Abstract (en)
1. Metal reinforcement for reinforced concrete of the kind having a web with a convex polygonal section whose apices are slightly frustoconical with oblique ribs on its slightly convex faces and whose section is substantially inscribed inside a circle, characterized in that the distance separating the most convex part of the ribs (4) and the centre of the web (1) is slightly less than that separating said center and said frustoconical apices (2).

Abstract (fr)
Armature métallique pour béton armé, caractérisée en ce qu'elle présente une âme (1), ayant une section polygonale dont les sommets (2) sont légèrement tronqués, comportant sur ses faces des nervures (4) obliques, l'ensemble de la section de l'armature s'inscrivant sensiblement dans un cercle.
