Abstract (en)
[origin: US4750607A] For transferring cigarettes or cigarette groups (10) corresponding to a pack from a cigarette magazine (11) to continuously moved blank or folding units (folding turret 20), a pocket conveyor (17) is used as a conveying member. This is driven intermittently, that is to say with a periodic standstill, in one part region (upper strand 23 or lower strand 24) and continuously in another part region (lower strand 24 or upper strand 23).
