Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0216734A2] The vessel with cover contains a deodorant, and is particularly for use as a domestic dustbin. The cover (1) is fitted with a device (2) supporting or containing a deodorant insert, and with openings towards the vessel interior (5) through which the deodorant is dissipated. The openings can comprise a housing integral with the cover, with a large number of ports in the bottom, and a sealing plug (6). Other ports can be formed in the plug.
