Abstract (en)

[origin: US4738218A] The rotating head comprises a predetermined number of blades being supported by a blade carrier arm (3), the latter being integral with the shaft (1). The blades are arranged on a vertical axis in suitably inclined positions, a fact which permits to carry out the automatic coating of the surface of the material by means of every type of material based on marble, stone and the like by means of every type of putty.

Abstract (fr)

La tête present un certain nombre de spatules (4) chacune disposé sur un bras portespatule (3), solidaire à l'arbre (1) et disposée sur un axe vertical, en positions opportunément inclinées, ce qui permet d'effectuer le stucage automatique de la surface du material, avec n'importe quel tipe de mastic pour des materiels de pierre.
