Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0219656A1] 1. Autographic register, in particular for the manual preparation of invoices or purchase orders, comprising a flat housing (1), which is substantially parallelepipedal and into the upper face of which a window (2) is cut, which allows writing on the sheets (3) or strips of paper which are inserted into the said housing (1), and which is surrounded by a relatively wide frame (4), and characterized in that it comprises a small calculator (7), of which at least the keys (7A1) and the display device (7A2) are mounted on the housing, in particular on the frame (4) surrounding the writing window (2), so as to be easily accessible to the user, and a device (13) for displaying in large characters the result of calculations performed with the small calculator (7), this display device (13) being independent of the said small calculator (7) and being arranged so as to be clearly visible to the customer facing the user and so as not to impede the carrying out of writing and calculations by the said user.
