Abstract (en)
1. Invoicing and loading equipment for loose articles such as purchases made in a hypermarket store, consisting of a check-out counter (1, 31, 51, 61) comprising an invoicing station (8, 32, 53, 56), customers passing along the said check-out counter with a trolley containing the said articles.
2. The equipment comprises, downstream of the invoicing station (8, 32, 53, 66) a device (37, 52, 67) for longitudinal transfer in the open position of containers (2, 69) of invoiced articles; it may also comprise, upstream of the invoicing station (8, 32, 53, 66), a device (5-6, 36, 52) for transfer in the open position of containers (2, 69) of the articles to be invoiced. 3. The invention makes it possible to facilitate operations for loading the articles after invoicing. <IMAGE>

Abstract (fr)
1° L'invention concerne une installation de facturation et de chargement d'articles en vrac tels que les achats effectués dans un magasin à grande surface, constituée d'un comptoir-caisse (1,31,51,61) comportant un poste de facturation (8,32,53,56), les clients passant le long dudit comptoir-caisse avec un chariot de transport desdits articles. 2° Conformément à l'invention, l'installation comporte en aval du poste de facturation (8,32,53,66) un dispositif (37,52,67) de transfert longitudinal en position ouverte de récipients (2,69) des articles facturés; elle peut également comporter, en amont du poste de facturation (8,32,53,66), un dispositif (5-6, 36,52) de transfert en position ouverte de récipients (2,69) des articles à facturer. 3° L'invention permet de faciliter les opérations de chargement des articles après facturation.
