Abstract (en)

[origin: WO8704330A1] The support bar (1) is provided with two hooks (3, 4), one of which is located vertically above the center of gravity of the device. The coat-hangers may be suspended from the holes (5) in the device. The device may be suspended by means of its two hooks (3, 4) to a clothing suspension bar. Although the horizontal distance (a) is small, the device offers good access, visibility and convenience.
