Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0266438A1] A chain of laterally interconnected bags (10, 11) with each having releasably interlocking rib and groove elements (17, 18) on confronting inner faces at the top and with each being closed by a side seam (14, 15) at each side. A strip (19, 21) is attached or is integral along the top edge or bottom edge of the chain and is removable by a series of perforations (20, 22) through the material so that removal separates the bags (10, 11) from the chain.
