Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0276660A1] The lounge chair (10), in particular a transportable resting chair, has a frame (11) and a resting surface (12) spread between the frame. In order to have a conveniently transportable and usable sunshade (13) whilst lying on the lounge chair (10), said sunshade is arranged essentially above the resting surface (12) and is displaceable, if required, relative to the frame (11). <IMAGE>
