Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0302209A1] The crochet galloon machine has compound needles (2), the knitting needles (4) of which are arranged on a knitting-needle bar (6). The sliding tongues (8) of the sliding-tongue needles (2) are fastened to a sliding-tongue bar (10) which is arranged above the knitting-needle bar (6). This affords a simple and compact design of the crochet galloon machine. <IMAGE>
