Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0500144A1] To reduce the number of components, to make the "dead" tub volume smaller and to simplify the production of a washing machine, the housing 17 of a pump chamber 10 for a lye pump 3 is so arranged directly on the tub 15 that the chamber wall 11 having the lye inflow 6 is located at least approximately in line with the tub casing 16 provided for the integration of the lye pump. <IMAGE>
