Abstract (en)

The invention provides a storage bag (10-15) of flexible sheet material (16) characterised in that it is of generally rectangular configuration comprising a planar base section (10), opposed generally vertically disposed side wall sections (11)(12), opposed generally vertically disposed end wall sections (13)(14) and a generally planar roof section (15). The invention also provides a harness (20, 21, 22, 23, 25) for containing the storage bag (10-15) within a standardised container (19) for transport purposes. The invention further provides a blank (16) for forming the storage bag (10-15) and a method of folding and joining the blank (16) to form the storage bag (10-15).
