Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0337847A2] A two-piece tubed product dispensing closure wherein the cap member has a recessed top surface (32) such that the connected tube (4) can be stored in an upright position resting on the end closure. The closure includes a steep pitch double thread (62) on the tube end in combination with a steep pitch single thread (35) in the cap (2) to create rapid opening and closing of the closure with good cap control.
