Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0337960A1] The gift (2, 3, 4) and its casing (5) are formed essentially as a single unit, for example of moulded plastics material. After its formation, the gift, or its constituent parts (2, 3, 4) can be folded into the casing (5) which is then closed. The packaging of the unit can then be carried out completely automatically.
