Abstract (en)

A trailer (1) for motor cars is composed of a loading platform (3) mounted on running means (4) and comprising, on the one hand, coupling means (5) and, on the other hand, side panels (8, 9) integral with the longitudinal (6) and transverse (7) edges of the said loading platform (3). So as to facilitate the transporting, setting up and taking down of a game of skittles (2), this trailer (1) for motor vehicles is provided with means (15) for winding up and unwinding a carpet of flexible material (12) constituting the alley of this game of skittles (2). <IMAGE>
