Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0344662A2] The invention relates to a flat paper-like, especially sheet- or web-like support for the production of a diazo copy from a transparent original, consisting of a support layer and a light-sensitive coating arranged on one side thereof. To provide a dimensionally stable and tear-resistant support, the support layer is formed from a fibrous plastic sheet, sprayed onto a surface and consisting of olefin fibres deformed under pressure and at an elevated temperature.
