Abstract (en)

An aspirator (10) comprising a suction head (11) fitted onto the top of a wheel-mounted bin designed to contain the aspirated material. The bin is composed of a bottom section (13) carrying said wheels (15) and of one or more intermediate sections (16) open from above and below which can be stacked and removably secured together so as to form, together with the bottom section, a bin of variable vertical dimensions.
