Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0357900A2] Clothes washing machine provided with a drawer having a plurality of compartments for detergents and additives. The selective water supply to the compartments of the drawer is performed by means of a horizontal plate provided with inner pipes (8, 8 min 8 sec) and holes (10,12) on its lower surface. The position and diameter of the holes are so arranged as to ensure a correct water supply regardless of the pressure of the water mains.
