Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0377213A2] The invention relates to an advertising support to be fixed to parking meters, in particular to columns of parking meters. The advertising support is characterised by a body (1) through which the column (5) of the parking meter passes and which can be fastened to the latter by means of fastening elements, this body (1) having a polygonal or circular cross-section and at least one outer surface (2, 3, 4) used for attaching advertisements. The body may be a prismatic body with triangular cross-section and centrally arranged fixing elements for fixing it to the column (5), in which case the outer surfaces (2, 3, 4) serve for the attachment of advertisements. <IMAGE>
