Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0409731A2] The invention relates to a packaging box which is specially adapted to the packing of foodstuffs, such as bakery, pastry or similar products. The packaging box consists of a tray (2) on which the said product is deposited, as well as of a protective lid (1) which can be fitted over the tray. Moreover, it has means for creating a circulation of air inside the box in order to prevent condensation phenomena on the inner walls of the box. <IMAGE>
