Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0424559A1] Mounting space cover, in particular for foamed installation blocks in the sanitary sector in the form of a shaped apron (5) for connection to the underside of an installation block (1) with its outer face essentially flush with the front face of the installation block. An essentially rigid metal reinforcement (7) foamed into the apron (5) provides the apron with strength and dimensional stability. <IMAGE>
