Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0424637A1] A fabric for producing ink ribbons for typewriters, printers or the like, whose threads are interwoven as warp and weft threads, in which at least one type of the threads (2, 3) consists of microfibrres (7, 9). In each case one type of the threads (2, 3) can consist of silk; both the types of the threads (2, 3) can also consist of microfibrres (7, 9). The microfibrres (7, 9) consist of very fine filaments. They can consist of more than 60, alternatively of more than 100 filaments. They have a linear density of 0.9 dtex or less. <IMAGE>
