Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0440121A1] For the purposes of attachment to an element of an item of furniture, an arrangement of clamps has a shaped piece engaging around this element and a threaded part which is provided with a contact-pressure part and guided in a thread of the shaped part. The threaded part is arranged on the upper side of the shaped piece and has an upward-projecting cylindrical extension (32) on which is rotatably arranged an element which carries a working apparatus, for example a lectern. <IMAGE>
