Abstract (en)

A recloseable package wherein the enclosed product (12) is supported on a rigid backing board (18) and the package includes a recloseable seal strip (29) mounted on an access edge of the backing board. One sheet of packaging film (14) overlies the backing board and the packaged product. The film sheet (14) is sealed hermetically around the periphery (24) of the backing board and further sealed to the recloseable seal strip (29) exterior of the hermetic seal. <IMAGE>
