Abstract (en)

A flexible, recloseable package (10) includes a recloseable seal (24) disposed near the mouth of the package and a frangible web (38) connecting the recloseable seal components. A peel seal (37) is disposed between the recloseable seal and the package product (12). Attempts to open the peel seal and/or gain access to the package product will result in noticeable disruption of the frangible web (38). <IMAGE>
