Abstract (en)

The handles (2) of this pair of crutches have male and female coupling elements which make it possible to fix them to one another in a removable manner. These crutches thus fixed can then be placed in a stable position against any support whose level is situated above their centre of gravity. <IMAGE>

Abstract (fr)

Les poignées (2) de cette paire de béquilles présentent des éléments d'accouplement mâle et femelle qui permettent de les fixer amoviblement l'une à l'autre. Ces béquilles ainsi fixées peuvent être ensuite posées de façon stable contre n'importe quel appui dont le niveau se situe au-dessus de leur centre de gravité. <IMAGE>
