Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0468330A1] In order to cover and/or to seal a container essentially tightly by means of a lid-type arrangement (11), the arrangement (11) is of film-or foil-type construction and is at least virtually elastic at least in the region of the resting point on the rim (18) of the container mouth in order that the lid-type arrangement can be tensioned over the rim of the container mouth. <IMAGE>
