Abstract (en)

An image forming system comprising a sheet ejection tray on which ejected sheets can be collected; and a sheet hold-down device including a sheet hold-down member pivotally mounted on the sheet ejection tray via a support shaft for pivotal movement in a direction perpendicular to a surface of the sheet ejection tray, and a hold-down member biasing means for biasing the sheet hold-down member away from the surface of the sheet ejection tray in opposition to a weight of the sheet hold-down member itself and for maintaining a predetermined urging force of the sheet hold-down member so long as the sheet hold-down member is within a predetermined range of its pivotal movement. <IMAGE>
