Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0496560A2] A method and apparatus for roll forming strip material in which the strip material (30) is first fed into a feed and cutting unit (14) in which a predetermined length of material is fed and cut off, and is then fed into a roll forming unit (16) which is driven at at least the same speed as the feed unit (14). The cut material is discharged onto a table (18). An alternative roll forming unit (17) can be employed instead of the unit (16). <IMAGE>
