Abstract (en)

The present invention relates to a disposable package case, characterised in that it comprises: a rigid base (2), a rigid lid (3) having, on its periphery, a lateral wall (4) capable of being immobilised and locked onto the said base (2) by snap-fitting means (7a, 7b), and a tamper-proof device (10) interacting with at least one part of the said snap-fitting means (7a) in order to lock the said case (1), it being possible for the said tamper-proof device (10) to be torn off and it being arranged so as to prevent subsequent immobilising of the said lid (3) on the said base (2) after it has been torn off. <IMAGE>
