Abstract (en)

Bath screen lock intended for bath screens with two swing panels (1) and (2), consisting of a profile (5) for the edge of each panel, opposite the swing edge; said profile incorporates a groove (7) for securing it to its panel (1-2), and a second groove (8) opposite the other, with a pinched opening for the introduction of a magnetic strip (9) so that the screen is closed by said magnetic strips on each panel, which are secured together. End covers (10) and (13) provide an attractive finish to the profiles (5) and serve to hold the magnetic strips (9) in place. <IMAGE> <IMAGE>
