Abstract (en)
Flying toy comprising a conventional child's toy balloon (10) and a pipe (16), provided with a wide entry edge (18) and a narrow exit neck (26), mounted in a fixed manner on the inflation appendage of the balloon. The pipe is equipped with studs (30) adapted to receive finned drinking straws (36) with a view to forming a trajectory stabiliser. This flying toy is a balloon-rocket. It constitutes an educational toy and an advertising article which is particularly interesting for fast-food companies. <IMAGE>
