Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0522477A1] A towel dispenser with paper is described, there being at least two or more than two rolls of paper (4, 5) in a housing, and each roll of paper (4, 5) being drivable separately. In this case, the webs of paper (8, 9) of the respective roll of paper (4, 5) converge in the vicinity of a lower removal opening (23) of the apparatus so that, alternatively, either the one or the other web of paper (8, 9) can be removed from the apparatus. <IMAGE>
