Abstract (en)
[origin: US5372075A] PCT No. PCT/DE91/00195 Sec. 371 Date Sep. 4, 1992 Sec. 102(e) Date Sep. 4, 1992 PCT Filed Mar. 5, 1991 PCT Pub. No. WO91/13577 PCT Pub. Date Sep. 19, 1991. A dismantlable display cabinet comprises a box-shaped container, consisting of a base part 4 and a lid part 6. A dismantlable framework can be mounted on the base part 4, the framework including posts 12 to 22 which have guide grooves for receiving side wall elements and shelf elements in the form of glass panes in a displaceable manner. The lid part 6 of the container forms the top closure of the display cabinet. In the dismantled state of the display cabinet the individual parts of the framework, the shelves and the side walls are stowed inside the container. In the dismantled state the display cabinet can be easily transported, requires little space and can be assembled and dismantled very rapidly and simply.
