Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0527098A2] Reclosable package intended to contain small-sized articles, especially with a view to displaying them for sale, comprising a bag of transparent plastic rendered integral with an informative card. The informative card is made up of a bridging element (3), the two flaps (30, 31) of which tightly grip the upper part of the bag (2), one edge of the opening (23) of which is welded by its outer surface to one flap (31) of the bridging element (3), the other edge being welded on both sides, over a small width, to the other flap (30), which comprises two prescored regions (32, 33) arranged at a certain distance from the edges (34, 35) of the said flap (30), and extending over a height slightly greater than that part of the bag (2) tightly gripped by the two flaps (30, 31) of the bridging element (3). <IMAGE>
