Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0528421A2] A recording medium in which operating descriptions of an information reading apparatus are recorded in multiple languages and the information reading apparatus are disclosed. When a CD-ROM as the recording medium is loaded into the information reading apparatus and the language for display is selected by the user, the CPU (4) fetches operating descriptions of the information reading apparatus expressed in the selected language for display from the CD-ROM and stores them into a main RAM (6). Thereafter, according to the operations made by the user, applicable sentences of the operating descriptions of the information reading apparatus expressed in the language for display are displayed on a display (10) by the CPU (4). <IMAGE>
